Description

This is an agreement recognising that peace and security in DRC and the Great Lake region is only possible when the threats from armed national and foreign groups and their politico-military organisations are eliminated. This document deals with the ex-FAR/Interahamwe in particular. The two countries affirm their respect for each other's sovereignty and their willingness to cooperate in the dismantling of the threat posed by the ex-FAR/Interahamwe. They will not politically, materially or militarily support directly or indirectly any armed groups operating in DRC, they will exchange information and deal with common interest through the existing verification mechanisms and the tripartite commission. They affirm they will not use negative propaganda against each other. There are specifics for each governments on what they agree to do as well as specifics that they both agree to do. The document includes a call to their international partners witness to this joint communiqué and others.

Have reiterated the following:

1. Peace and security in the DRC and the Great Lakes region can only be achieved once the threat posed by all foreign and national armed groups in the DRC and their politico-military organizations is addressed;
2. The ex-FAR/Interahamwe constitutes a major threat to peace and security of Rwanda, the DRC, and the countries in the Great Lakes region in general, as well as to the Congolese population;
3. The presence of irregular Congolese armed groups in eastern DRC equally poses a threat to peace and security in the DRC and the entire Great Lakes region;
4. We both reaffirm our commitment to respect and uphold each other's sovereignty, and reiterate our commitment to fully cooperate and implement a common approach to dismantle the ex-FAR/Interahamwe as a genocidal military organization operating in the territory of the DRC;
5. We fully commit to prevent the direct or indirect support — political, material or human — to any national and foreign armed group operating in the DRC;
6. We shall share information, and address issues of common concern through existing mechanisms, in particular the Joint Verification Mechanism and the Tripartite Plus Commission;
7. We shall immediately assign the members to the Joint Verification Teams in Goma and Gisenyi as well as in Bukavu and Cyangugu;
8. We commit to refrain from any negative propaganda against each other.
9. The Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo commits to:
  - (a) Prepare, by 1 December 2007, a detailed plan to disarm and address the threat posed by the ex-FAR/Interahamwe.
