At the conclusion of Garowe I, the Signatories announced that the next Constitutional Consultative Conference would be held in Garowe in early 2012 and would focus on the finalization and adoption of federalism. Because time is of the essence, it was agreed that three critical issues required consideration by the delegates to ensure the completion of the constitution making process and ending the transition on time, by August 20, 2012, as follows:

1. Federalism: The nature of federal structure the country would adopt, including the status of the capital city, Mogadishu;

Page 2, Untitled Preamble,... 5. Whereas the signatories reaffirm the unity of the Somali people, the political independence and territorial integrity of the Somali nation, the following principles were agreed by the delegates and signatories of the Roadmap.

The Transitional Federal Charter makes references to a federal state and the Consultative Draft Constitution refer to the establishment of a bicameral federal legislature. The Garowe I Principles reiterate this but to not specify any details. In Garowe II, the following aspects for establishing a federal system were agreed upon:

- a. We recognise the Puntland State is a founding federal state and was an existing state upon the adoption of the Transitional Federal Charter in 2004. We further recognise that Galmudug State as a state within the federation, and it shall, as soon as is practical, fulfil all the requirements for becoming a full federal state as stipulated in the Transitional Federal Charter. The TFG and the International Community are called upon to extend all the necessary assistance to the Galmudug authorities in this regard.
- b. The criteria for the formation of new state shall conform to the provisions stipulated in the Charter, which is based on two or more regions coming together.
