1.15.1. Within two weeks of the signing of the Revitalised ARCSS, the IGAD

Executive Secretariat, taking into account the decision of the 55rh ExtraOrdinary Session of the IGAD Council of Ministers held in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, January 30-31, 2016, shall appoint an Independent Boundaries Commission (IBG) for the Republic of South Sudan.

1.15.2. The IBC shall consist of fifteen (15) members with the necessary skills and expertise.

1.15 .3 .1. Five (5) members to be nominated by Incumbent TGoNU.

1.15.3.2. Five (5) members to be nominated by opposition groups: two (2) from SPLM/A-10, one (1) from SSOA, one (1) from FDs, and one (1) from OPP.

1.15.3.3. Five (5) highly experienced CS members to be nominated by the Member States of the African Union High-Level Ad Hoc Committee on South Sudan from South Africa, Nigeria, Rwanda, Algeria and Chad.

1.15.4. The IBC shall be chaired by a non-South Sudanese member who shall be of recognized standing and integrity and who should have served in a senior judicial, executive or administrative position in his/het home country.

1.15.5. The IBC may retain the services of a team of experts from South Sudan, the IGAD region, AU, the Troika, and the international community as required.

1.15.6. If found appropriate, the IBC shall establish three teams, each consisting of five representatives and relevant experts, to be deployed at locations it will designate.

1.15.7. The function of the IBC shall be to consider the number of States of the Republic of South Sudan, their boundaries, the composition and restructuring of the Council of States and to make recommendations on the same.

1.15.8. The IBC shall study all viable alternatives in the light of guidelines that shall be drawn beforehand and right at the beginning of its work. The IBC shall also draw its own internal regulations. Adoption of the guidelines and internal regulations shall be by simple majority of the IBC.

1.15.9. The IBC shall strive to adopt its final report by consensus. If consensus is not achieved, the IBC shall adopt its final report by a decision that shall be supported by at least seven (7) of its South Sudanese members.

1.15.10. The recommendations of the IBC shall be presented to the IGAD Executive Secretariat and shall be immediately communicated to the Parties.

1.15.11. The Parties agree to abide by the recommendations of the IBC, and hereby authorize the IGAD Executive Secretariat to enshrine the same in the Revitalised ARCSS as an addendum. The Parties accept to implement the recommendations in full at the beginning of the Transitional Period.

1.15.12. The IBC shall complete its work within a maximum of ninety (90) days that shall not be extendable.

1.15.13. Upon issuing the final report of the IBC the Council of States shall be reconstituted as shall be recommended by the IBC. However, if the IBC failed to issue its final report the Council of States shall be reconstituted pursuant to the outcome of the referendum.

1.15.14. In the unlikely event of the IBC failing to make its final report before the end of its term, the IBC shall be automatically transformed on the 90th day of its term into Referendum Commission on Number and Boundaries of States (RCNBS) of the Republic of South Sudan.

1.15.15. The RCNBS shall work under the direct supervision and support of the African Union and the IGAD, and pursuant to international guidelines, and shall conduct the referendum before the end of the agreed eight (8) months Pre-Transitional Period.

1.15.16. The referendum shall be conducted on the number and boundaries of States of the Republic of South Sudan; taking into account the positions advanced by the Parties. The question or set of questions that shall be posed in the referendum shall be the same for the entire country unless it is decided in the RCNBS that each State shall have different question or set of questions more understandable to the people.

1.15.17. Annex E (Mediation Proposal of August 19, 2018) to this Agreement shall apply notwithstanding any provision to the contrary.

1.15.18. Without prejudice to the above provisions of Article 1.15.1 - 1.15.16:

1.15.18.1. Immediately upon the signing of the Revitalised ARCSS, the IGAD Mediation shall appoint a Technical Boundary Committee (TBC) to define and demarcate the tribal areas of South Sudan as they stood on 1 January 1956 and the tribal areas in dispute in the country.

1.15.18.2. The TBC shall consist of suitable number of experts drawn from IGAD and Troika Countries.

1.15.18.3. The TBC shall receive presentations from local communities and any South Sudanese and study them. It shall finish its work within sixty (60) days.

1.15.18.4. The decision of the TBC shall be by consensus. If consensus is not achieved, decision shall be by simple majority and any dissenting view shall be recorded.

1.15.18.5. Immediately upon completion of its work, the TBC shall present its report including dissenting views, if any, to the IGAD Mediation.

1.15.18.6. The IBC and RCNBS shall take full account of the report of the TBC which shall form the basis for their decision and formulation of the question for the referendum.

1.15.18.7. In the event that any tribe claims that the TBC report is violated, that tribe is entitled to resort within a maximum of two years of the alleged violation to arbitration and bring its case against the RTGoNU or any subsequent government of the Republic of South Sudan before the Permanent Court of Arbitration at The Hague. The RTGoNU or any subsequent government agrees to abide by the arbitration award and shall introduce any required state boundary rectifications.
