A. Bougainvillean leaders will convene a constituent assembly, broadly representative of the people of Bougainville, to adopt the document establishing the BRG.

B. The document establishing the BRG will be forwarded to the Papua New Guinea Government without delay after its adoption by the constituent assembly .

C. The document establishing the BRG may provide for the progressive development of the BRG. Existing administrative arrangements, including local-level government, the delivery of services, reconstruction and development, will continue pending review and progressive restructuring on the initiative of the BRG.

Officials will remain at their posts in order to facilitate an integrated approach towards public administration.

The BRG will have both legislative and executive arms.

The legislative arm will be broadly representative of the people of Bougainville, with special provision for representation of women and other interest groups as agreed by the Bougainvillean parties or, after it is established, the BRG

The document establishing the BRG will provide for the appointment, organisation and procedures of both the legislative and the executive arms, including relations between them.

The four members who represent Bougainville in the national parliament will be full members of the legislative arm and entitled to be appointed to the executive arm.

The cost of the legislative and executive arms (including allowances and travel) will be met from the budget for the BRG.

The parties (and, when it is formed, the BRG and Papua New Guinea Government) will cooperate to ensure that members of the BRG can represent their people by speaking and making decisions freely within the law and according to conscience.
