4. The roundtable agrees the creation of an Auxiliary Commission for Special Cases, comprising the negotiators Monsignor Alberto Giraldo, on behalf of the government, and Andrés París, on behalf of FARC–EP, who will be responsible for studying the specific situations that may affect the progress of the process to ensure the dialogue and negotiations are not interrupted. This commission will be used subject to the mutual agreement of the parties when the roundtable deems that circumstances merit its use.
5. The roundtable began to analyse the proposals on the evaluation and information mechanisms for the demilitarised zone. Proposals were exchanged between the parties and it was agreed that a decision will be taken on the matter at the next meeting.
