In the name of Allah, the Beneficent, the Merciful

Blessings and peace on our noble prophet and envoy of Allah, guided by the Almighty.

“Repel [evil] by that [deed] which is better; and thereupon the one whom between you and him is enmity [will become] as though he was a devoted friend. But none is granted it except those who are patient, and none is granted it except one having a great portion [of good].” [Surat Fussilat 34]

And the Almighty said: “And cooperate in righteousness and piety, but do not cooperate in sin and aggression.” [Surat al-Maidah 2]

And he, peace by upon him, said: “The whole of a Muslim is inviolable for another Muslim: his blood, his property, and his honour.” [Hadith Nawawi 35]

In order to preserve the cohesion of the social fabric and to fix the rift between brothers, neighbours and siblings in one nation, and in the desire to avoid more strife, wars and bloodshed, we stand today at this historic milestone to witness and to assist the sensible position called for by the Mashashiyya and Zintan tribes as well as those other tribes around them (to rise above injury and return kinship and repair the rift so that tranquillity and peace may return to Libya.

The reconciliation council is comprised of:

After rounds of communication regarding the current problem in the region of al-‘Awiniyya, ‘Umur, and Zawiyya al-Baqul between the Zintan, the Mashashiyya, the Quntrar and tribes bordering al-‘Awiniyya, and numerous calls with all parties, with a mandate from the warring tribes to the council comprised of the afore-mentioned tribes, and after examination of all circumstances surrounding this problem with the councils entrusted and authorized by the relevant tribes, the reconciliation council reached consensus on the following agreement:

1. The people of al-‘Awiniyya, Zawiyya al-Baqul and ‘Umur remain in their homes, with the return of incomers1 from other regions back to their place of origin.
2. Return of emigrants from Mizda to their homes from Zintan, Quntrar, Mashashiyya and others.
3. Concealment of all provocative, armed presences in all conflict zones.
4. Securing the roads leading in and out of the mentioned places, and ensuring that no checkpoints are established.
5. Coordination with security directorates in the bordering regions to put in place a plan to secure the roads in coordination with the councils from all parties.
6. In the case of any act of aggression or criminal act by any individual or group from the quarreling parties, the case against the offender or offenders will be determined and they will be handed over to a neutral agency agreed-upon by the parties, or to the reconciliation council given that the parties pledged not [to engage] in indiscriminate and random retaliation with the raising of social coverage from the defectors.
