In the name of God, most Gracious, most Compassionate

al-Qa’alah and Shubatqa Reconciliation Agreement

August 2014

Praise be to God, and May His Peace and Blessings be upon the Messenger Mohammed bin Abdullah and upon his family and companions.

Allah says: ‘And say [unto them, O Prophet]: “Act! -and then He will make you understand what you have been doing.”’ [9:105]

In this day, 2/8/2014 a truce was set between the two tribes of Al-Qa’alah and Shubatqa. Following the good and benevolent efforts of Al-Sayyid Ahmed Bihay al-Din Salih al-Sarwari that led to reparation, a cease fire and security. The truce is for three years, starting today. The al-Qa’alah tribe are considered neighbours of Shubatqa, following the [...] could not sit with Shubatqa.

This truce is considered as [illegible] which took much efforts to [find] a solution to the dispute. This was signed before the Sayyid and the Yemeni [illegible]. The elders of the two tribes are obliged to [illegible] whomever that violates this truce.

[9 signatories]

1 4 words are illegible.
2 Uncertain. It can be a document.
3 Uncertain.
4 Uncertain